

PAGE THE PACKERS PRIVACY POLICY DECLARATION

By making an enquiry via this site, you consent to the collection, use and transfer of your information under the terms of this policy.

Information that we collect from you

When you contact us via www.pagethepackers.co.uk you will be asked to provide certain information about yourself including your name, email address and browsing information about your use of the Page the Packers website (such as information about your browser type and the pages of the website that you visit). We may also collect information about you from e-mails or letters you send to us or from telephone calls with you.

Use of your information

Your information will enable us to supply the information you have requested. It will also enable us to contact you where necessary concerning your enquiry. We will also use and analyse the information we collect so that we can administer, support, improve and develop our business.

Disclosure of your information

The information you provide to us will be held in the UK and accessed by or given to our staff or designated agents working within the UK. Unless required to do so by law, we will not otherwise share, sell or distribute any of the information you provide to us without your consent.

Security and data retention

We employ security measures to protect your information from access by unauthorised persons and against unlawful processing, accidental loss, destruction and damage. We will retain your information for a reasonable period or as long as the law requires.

Accessing and updating

You are entitled to see the information held about you and you may ask us to make any necessary changes to ensure that it is accurate and kept up to date. If you wish to do this, please contact us. We are entitled by law to charge a fee to meet our costs in providing you with details of the information we hold about you.

Changes to our privacy policy

Any changes to our privacy policy in the future will be posted to the site and, where appropriate, through e-mail notification.
